Reference: Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, HR 4173, Section 1502, reporting requirements for conflict minerals (“Conflict Minerals Act”).

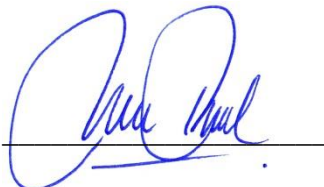

To All Buyers of Reaxis Tin Chemicals:

Reaxis certifies that all our tin containing products are entirely manufactured from raw material that is classified as DRC Conflict Free as defined by HR 4173, Section 1502, 1D (page 839).

Reaxis has identified and verified its sources. We welcome audits by independent, licensed auditors.

Reaxis supports all initiatives to assure conflict free supply chain sourcing, especially illegally mined tin from the Democratic Republic of the Congo and its adjoining countries.

Sincerely,

Marco R. van der Poel
President and CEO
Reaxis Inc.
